

Managing across the generations

Accelerate Training and Consulting Pty Ltd

Do you have responsibility for managing a multi-generational team? Would you like to learn more about the differences between baby boomers, Gen X and Gen Y? Would you like some management strategies for helping the generations work better together.

Attend Managing across the generations, and take a journey with trainers who have led large numbers of staff across all age groups and understand your needs.

This workshop will provide managers with tools to help you understand the differences between the generations. Participants will also better appreciate the workplace needs of different employee groups, and how to motivate, reward and set goals for these employees.

(Suitable for managers and supervisors responsible for a team with considerable inter-generational mix).
